

INDEX

- Admiralty – see Arrest of ships criminal jurisdiction, 68 ship boarding authority, 68–72
- Agency (brokerage) ship sale, 259
- Antarctic Treaty
 regional controls under treaty system, 23–25
- Anti-suit injunctions breach of London arbitration clause, 260
- Arbitration – international arbitration agreements, 14–15
 Chinese law, 158–60
 class actions not permitted, 430–3 enforcement of awards, 8, 12–16 exclusion agreements, 7 existence of agreement, 93 foreign awards, 8 inherent jurisdiction, 421 international sale contracts, 7 issues of fact, 421
 New York Convention court's discretion in enforcing awards, 8, 12–16 time limits, 341
- Arrest of ships
 jurisdictional preconditions, 97–101
- Bankruptcy
 maritime jurisdiction, and, 132–49 priority of maritime liens and ship mortgages, 132–49
- Bills of lading agency, 395
 delivery of goods without original bill Chinese provisions, 151–3 holders of mate's receipts, 381–2 third party loss, 421–2 transfer of contractual rights, 421–2
- Boarding foreign vessels at sea, 45–75 consent to boarding, 55–61 non-consensual boarding, 61–8
- Bunkers
 Bunkers supply contract, 344
- Cargo insurance see Marine insurance, Piracy book review, 414
 cargo, 10–11
- Carriage of goods by sea see Bills of lading, Hague-Visby Rules, Rotterdam Rules
 Argentinean law, under, 397–403
 Colombian law, under, 476–84
- Charterparties – time affiliate company of charterer, 342 assessment of damages, 263 breach of duty by owners, 87–8
 bunkers, 180
 deck cargo, 181–2
 demurrage claim time bar, 185–90 detention by piracy, 182–3 discharge of cargo, 260–1 early redelivery, 263 intentional conduct, 262 loss of sub-charter, 88 measure of damages, 9–10 payment obligation, 262
 redelivery of vessel, 180 relevance of Rotterdam Rules, 199 repudiation, 263–4
 rights of owners as gratuitous bailees, 260–1 validity of notice of readiness, 185–90 vetting process, 423–4 wasted expenses, 263–4 wrongful termination, 9–10
- Charterparties – voyage demurrage, 264–5
 port and berth voyage charterparties, 271–3 validity of NOR, 264–5
- Choice of law
 Rome 1 Regulation, 85–6
 Limitation of liability, 305–6
- Classification society damages claim against classification society, 342
- Collision of ships claim for emotional distress following near miss, 347–8 provisions under Chinese law, 153–5
- Comparative law
 insurer's post-contractual duty of good faith, 446–63
 maritime liens and ship mortgages in bankruptcy, 132–49
- Contracts (general)
 contractual variations imposed, 88–9 interpretation of terms, 90–1, 92 parties having no choice, 427–30
 'without prejudice' qualification, 348–51
- Crew cargo claims when crew incompetent, 115–23 distinction between negligence and incompetence, 102–5 incompetence and seaworthiness, 105–15 industry standards of competence, 125–31 insurance claims when crew incompetent, 123–25
- Customs
 EU advance cargo declaration regime, 464–75
- Damages
 marine pollution, 434–45
- Dangerous goods
 definition, 376–7
 right to indemnity, 422–3
- Documentary credits complying documents, 8–9, 16–20 confirming banks, 19–20
- Environmental protection abolition of 'nautical fault' defence, 375 carriage of goods by sea, and, 390–2
 'dangerous goods', 376–7
 deviation to avoid damage, 376 implications of Rotterdam Rules, 370–9 international conventions, 377–8 provision of seaworthy ship, 373–4
- Escrow agreement, 344
- EU law
 advance cargo declaration regime, 464–75 contracts for carriage of goods, 427–30 development of law on multimodal transport, 228–41
 limitation of liability, 296–301
- Freedom of the seas exceptions, 51–72
- Freight forwarders
 volume contracts, 358–60
- Good faith
 insurer's post-contractual duty, 446–63
- Hague-Visby Rules
 Article 4(2)(a) exemption, 88 interpretation, 88
- Hazardous substances see Dangerous goods changes to HNS Convention, 76–9
 HNS Protocol 2010, 257–8

- Insurance see Marine insurance
- International Labour Organisation
 - Work in Fishing Convention to be ratified, 247
- International sale of goods
 - breach of implied term, 425–6
 - chain of causation, 425–6
 - CIP sale contract, obligation to obtain insurance, 91–2
 - construction of ‘readiness to load’, 343
 - contract terms, 90–1
 - contractual variations imposed, 88–9
 - economic duress, 88–9
 - FOB sale, non-conforming goods, 424–5
 - incorporation of standard terms, 89–90
 - market price increase, 88–90
 - oral agreement, 89–90
- Jurisdiction
 - Brussels Regulation, proposed changes to, 404–7
 - limitation of liability
 - 1996 LLMC, under, 294–6
 - common law, under, 301–5
 - English proceedings, 289–316
 - EU law, 296–301
- Law of the sea – see Antarctic Treaty, Boarding foreign vessels at sea, Freedom of the seas, Particular sensitive sea areas, Southern Ocean
- Limitation of liability
 - applicable law, 305–316
 - jurisdiction
 - English proceedings, 289–316
 - US position, 307
 - maritime claims
 - Chinese law, 155–7
 - proposed increase in limits, 409
- Liner conferences
 - jurisdictions compared, 355–8
- Liner shipping
 - third-party agents, 360–3
- Liquefied natural gas
 - contributions by receiver to HNS Fund, 77–8
- Marine insurance – see also Cargo insurance
 - causation, 270–1
 - Chinese law, 155
 - claims when crew incompetent, 115–25
 - competing causes of loss, 267–71
 - foreseeable sea conditions, 10–11
 - inherent vice, 10–11, 268–9
 - insurer’s duty of good faith, 446–63
 - perils of the sea, 269–70
- Marine pollution
 - offshore activities, 408–9
 - private party claimants for damages, 434–45
- Maritime security
 - EU Recommendation, 5–6
- Mate’s receipts
 - holder’s right of pledge, 393–4
 - holder’s right to bill of lading, 381–2
 - holder’s right to freight and damages, 390–3
 - holder’s right to take delivery, 388–90
 - increased use of, 380–96
- Multimodal carriage of goods
 - bulk cargoes, 195–8
 - carrier’s responsibility, 194–5
 - Estonian perspective on Rotterdam Rules, 243–6
 - European context and Rotterdam Rules, 274–88
 - European perspectives, 221–42
 - impact of Rotterdam rules, 191–209
 - jurisdictional problems, 207–8
 - liability regimes, 184, 277–87
 - operations between Europe and non-European countries, 201–7
- Negligence
 - fire in oil storage depot, 346
- New York Convention – see Arbitration – international
- Oil pollution
 - compensation claims, 169–70, 319–21
 - IOPC Fund meetings, 169–71, 319–22
 - provisions under Chinese law, 157–8
 - tacit acceptance procedure, 79
- Oil rig supply vessels
 - negligence of service company, 183
- Oil rigs
 - termination of charter contract ‘to suit convenience’, 92
- P&I Clubs
 - law and practice, 411–12
- Particularly sensitive sea areas
 - associated protective measures, 38–9
 - designation, 34–8, 40
 - Southern Ocean, and, 32–4
- Piracy
 - claim under cargo policy, 94–7
 - combined task forces, 166
 - EU maritime security, 5–6
 - EU NAVCO, 167
 - IML response, 407–8
 - international response, 161–8
 - jurisprudence, 167–8
 - Maritime Security Patrol Area (MSPA), 167
 - reporting, 162–3
 - UN Security Council Resolutions, 166
 - US Executive Order on Somalian piracy, 323–8
 - vulnerable areas, 163–5
- Port state control
 - Antarctic region, 40–3
- Ransom
 - payment not contrary to public policy, 96–7
 - US Executive Order on Somalian piracy, 323–8
- Rotterdam Rules see Carriage of goods
 - Colombian perspective on possible ratification, 476–84
 - Estonian perspective on Rotterdam Rules, 243–6
 - maritime plus concept, 225–8
 - scope of application, 210–20
 - volume contracts, 352–69
- Safety
 - shipping in the Southern Ocean, 21–44
- Seaworthiness
 - incompetence, 105–15
- Ship management contracts
 - amendment by side letter, 11
 - compensation, 11
- Ship passengers
 - rights for the disabled, 317–18
 - rights in event of delay or cancellation, 318–19
- Shipbuilding contracts
 - advance payment bonds, 266
 - commission agreements, 265
- Shipowners
 - due diligence, 115–23
 - insurance claims when crew incompetent, 123–25
- Ships
 - definition, 321
- Southern Ocean
 - development of mandatory polar code, 29–32
 - polar Guidelines, 27–9
 - safety in the Southern Ocean, 21–44
- Sovereignty
 - boarding foreign vessels at sea on terror-related intelligence, 45–75
- Stay of proceedings
 - maritime liens and ship mortgages in bankruptcy, 132–49
- Tankers
 - floating storage, 322
- Terrorism
 - boarding foreign vessels at sea, 45–75
- Tort
 - negligence, 346
- Trade regulation
 - impact on shippers, 354
 - volume contract in Rotterdam Rules, 352–69
- Yacht
 - yacht construction contract, 344–5